

Members of the City of Poughkeepsie Procedural Justice Committee spent part of Saturday, April 2, 2022 at the Public Safety Building on Main Street learning more about implicit bias, having attitudes toward people often based on stereotypes without consciously being aware of the associations. This is one of the trainings all the city police officers have taken. Lt. Sean McCarthy and Sgt. Mike Egan led the session that included exercises and discussion points.